

Cayton Children's Museum Brings Free Weekly Family Programming to West LA's Bundy Triangle Night Market

SANTA MONICA, Calif. - March 23, 2026 — Cayton Children's Museum is partnering with Los Angeles Councilwoman Traci Park to bring free, weekly family programming to Sawtelle, beginning Friday, March 27 and until the end of October. Each Friday evening from 5:00 to 8:00 PM, Cayton will provide hands-on children's activities at the Bundy Triangle — an accessible public space at Ohio Avenue and Bundy Drive — alongside the Bundy Triangle Night Market presented by Raw Inspiration.

The Bundy Triangle Night Market is part of a broader effort to activate Sawtelle's public spaces as safe, welcoming destinations for all. For Cayton Children's Museum, the partnership is an expression of its mission to extend the power of play beyond its walls in Downtown Santa Monica, bringing enriching, hands-on experiences to children and families across Los Angeles.

"Our job is to serve families across greater Los Angeles, and that means showing up where they are," said Thomas Sullivan, President and CEO of Cayton Children's Museum. "The Department of Cultural Affairs and Councilwoman Park have been active partners in this work, and that civic commitment enhances and expands what children's museums can do beyond their own walls."

The Night Market runs from 5:00 to 9:00 PM each Friday, and is presented in partnership with Raw Inspiration, the CD11 Foundation, Councilwoman Park, the Department of Cultural Affairs, and the West Los Angeles/Sawtelle Neighborhood Council.

About Cayton Children's Museum

Cayton Children's Museum is Los Angeles County's flagship play-based children's museum, serving children ages 0–8 and their families through 21,000 square feet of intentionally designed, discovery-driven play experiences. Founded in 1991 as the Zimmer Children's Museum and reimagined as Cayton Children's Museum in 2019 following a major community-supported expansion, the museum builds on more than three decades of service to families across Los Angeles. Located in Downtown Santa Monica, Cayton uses play as a foundation for learning, creating immersive environments that support social, emotional, and cognitive development through hands-on exploration. The museum welcomes more than 155,000 visitors annually from Los Angeles County and throughout Southern California.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Cayton serves as a civic resource for families by expanding access to play through initiatives such as PLAY4ALL memberships, providing free or reduced-cost admission for families facing financial barriers, along with community programs that extend learning beyond the museum's walls. Cayton Children's Museum is also a member of the Association of Children's Museums, the leading global organization supporting excellence, innovation, and access across the children's museum field. About Bundy Triangle Night Market

Dating back to the 1920s and tucked between Bundy, Ohio Ave and Olympic Blvd, the Bundy Triangle has long served as a small but meaningful neighborhood oasis. The Bundy Triangle Night Market is an activated public space that delivers food, shopping, and evening fun for the Sawtelle community. The Market is courtesy of Raw Inspiration, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that manages other Westside farmers markets, including the Brentwood and Pacific Palisades Farmers Markets.
